To: Office of Occupant Senior Constable
Jared Jensen in his private capacity acting as Agent of VICTORIA POLICE ABN: 63 446481493
Mildura Police Station
56 Deakin Avenue
Mildura Victoria

Please be aware that this is a lawful Notice, a lawful instrument that requires your urgent attention.
This 'Notice of Conditional Acceptance' shall be used as evidence if this matter should go to any Court.

Ei incumbit probation qui dicit, non qui negat

De facto Quo Warranto

Regarding: CHARGE – SHEET AND SUMMONS

Within the universal maxim of Law 'notice to agent is notice to principal and notice to principal is notice to agent'. All addressed parties Jointly and Severally as well as their Successors, Nominees, Agents and Assigns.

While the "motor vehicle registration" are not written in the English language, include glossas and ASL, and as such have no valid lawful meaning. I can accept the claim is, that it is a requirement, only through legislation, if a person wishes to drive a motor vehicle on roads within and across the Commonwealth of Australia, they must purchase a "vehicle registration" to 'drive' their 'vehicle' to avoid a penalty.

I wish it to be clear with no misunderstanding, Litter buy throwing it out of his window (I did not purchase anything from you) and did fail to give way, no injured party. Please produce the injured party. Law of the Land - Common Law -DO NO HARM. No injury-no harm.

This purported claim has been accepted for its value and consideration upon proof of claim, evidence that 'VICTORIA POLICE ABN: 63 446481493 , Trading as VICTORIA POLICE' (the business):

- has commonwealth jurisdiction, powers of authority to impose a requirement, or determine an offence or penalty, upon Subject of the Commonwealth standing as an unincorporated private entity (not the legal fiction, "the person, Raymond PAVILACH"),

Raymond John

- is a Commonwealth Government entity pursuant to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1900 imp. (“Constitution”),
- can provide evidence that the employees and agents of the business VICTORIA POLICE are Commissioned officers of the Crown, with lawful authority to enact or enforce laws, statutory regulations, directions, fees, penalties or charges being their Oath pursuant to the Constitution, pledge including “I do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Her heirs and successors (King Charles 111) according to law. So help me God!” (in the Queen or King’s “name”).
- can provide evidence that the ‘Road Safety Act 1986’ was created by a State or Federal Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Crown, showing evidence, copy of certified proclamation of Royal Commission of Assent, pursuant to the Constitution s58, i.e.. “Every Bill, after its passage through the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, shall, subject to section 73, be presented to the Governor for assent by or in the name of the Queen and shall be of no effect unless it has been duly assented to by or in the name of the Queen.”
- can produce the person of whom has harm. According to Black’s Law Dictionary, harm means to damage, injure, or hurt.

Unless the lawfully binding documents which provide the proof of claim of each item outlined in this document is supplied within 7 (seven) days from the date of this Notice, via Registered Mail, I shall assume that there is none, and your claim is null and void, and the “VICTORIA POLICE, ABN- 63 446481493 including its actor/agents for and on behalf of the “Business” have no lawfully binding authority over the living soul, to do so would be unlawful, and without full disclosure and my consent freely and knowingly given nullifying any assumed obligation, or claim, under fraud, noting all commerce is Contract.

You have been charged with an offence that can be heard summarily. You should speak to a legal practitioner (a lawyer) immediately.

How can you get more information about your charge:

Your charge-sheet will have some information about the charge. If you want more information, at any time you or your legal practitioner can make a request in writing to the informant (the person who charged you) for -

- a preliminary brief;
- a full brief (if you have been served with a Notice to Appear, you can ask only for a full brief after a summary case conference); and
- information or copies of what is listed in the preliminary or full brief at least 7 days (or more) before the next court date.

What the informant must do:

When the informant receives a request for more information from you or your legal practitioner he or she has -

- 14 days to give you a preliminary brief; or
- at least 14 days to give you a full brief before your contest mention or summary hearing; and
- 7 days to respond to your request.

The informant also must give you a list or copy of any new information that is relevant to the charge as soon as it is available to him or her.

In some cases, the informant can refuse to give you information. The informant must give you a notice in writing that explains why your request has been refused. Some of the reasons the informant may refuse your request are that disclosure of the information would -

- prejudice the investigation, enforcement or proper administration of the law; or
- prejudice a fair hearing of a charge or impartial adjudication of a particular case; or
- enable a person to ascertain the identity of a confidential source of information in relation to the enforcement or administration of law; or
- disclose methods or procedures of preventing, detecting, investigating contraventions or evasions of the law, the disclosure of which would be reasonably likely to prejudice the effectiveness of those methods or procedures; or
- endanger the life or physical safety of persons or their families, engaged in, or in connection with, law enforcement or persons who have provided confidential information in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law; or
- endanger the life or physical safety of a person referred to in section 43(1)(a) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 or of a family member, as defined in the Family Violence Protection Act 2008, of such a person; or
- result in the disclosure of child abuse material to the accused personally; or
- the informant may refuse disclosure of any information, document or thing that is requested under section 43(1)(d) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 on any ground for refusal of a witness summons; or
- the informant may refuse to disclose the particulars of any previous conviction of any witness who the informant intends to call at the hearing if the previous conviction because of its character is irrelevant to the proceeding.

What can you do if the informant refuses to give you the information?

You can apply to the Magistrates' Court for an order if you -

- get a written notice from the informant that they refuse to give you the requested information; or
- believe there is information that has not been disclosed that is relevant to your case.

Your legal practitioner can advise of how to apply for an order of the Magistrates' Court that the information be disclosed.

DETERMINED BY A COMMITTAL PROCEEDING

Section 13 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009
Magistrates' Court Criminal Procedure Rules 2019 Form 9 Rule 18

You have been charged with an indictable offence. You should speak to a legal practitioner (a lawyer) immediately.

How can you get information about your charge:

Your charge-sheet will have some information about the charge. More information about the charge will be provided to you when the informant (the person who charged you) gives you a hand-up brief or plea brief.

Hand-up Brief:

The informant must give you a hand-up brief containing the evidence which they rely on to prove the charge against you and a statement that you have no previous convictions or a copy of your criminal record by the date fixed by the Court at filing hearing.

Plea Brief:

If you decide to plead guilty to the charge the informant may give you a plea brief. The informant may only give you a plea brief if you have given your written consent. You should obtain legal advice before providing your written consent

Continuing obligation of disclosure:

The informant has an obligation to disclose to you any information, document or thing that comes into their possession after a hand-up brief is given to you. The informant must give you a copy of the information or list of things as soon as possible after it comes into their possession. However, the informant does not have an obligation to disclose to you any information, document or thing if the informant believes that doing so will result in the disclosure of child abuse material. In that case, you may apply to the court for an order requiring the informant to provide, or make available for inspection the information, document or thing.

Inspection of exhibits:

You may inspect any of the items listed in a hand-up brief at a time and place agreed with the informant.
